Employers Feedback Action Taken Report

Academic Years: 2019-2023

Grooming and Training:

The placement officer at IEMS regularly trains the students on areas such as dress code, body language, and interview preparation.

Faculty and placement officer conduct training sessions on soft skills to ensure students are better prepared for interviews.

Communication Skills Training:

- Students are provided access to language lab.
- Communication training is imparted to students through Career Development Cell.

Hospitality:

A dedicated hospitality team is assigned to oversee arrangements for HRs and visiting recruiters. This includes improved logistical support, personalized attention, and ensuring comfort during their campus visit.

The focus on grooming, communication skills, and hospitality has helped enhance student preparedness and the overall placement experience. By acting on recruiter suggestions year-on-year, IEMS B-School has demonstrated its commitment to refining the placement process and improving student employability.
